

The Japan Experience

A scenic view of Mount Fuji, its peak covered in snow, rising above a city nestled at its base. In the foreground, the vibrant orange and red leaves of autumn trees frame the scene. On the right side, a traditional Japanese red pagoda with multiple tiers and green roofs is visible, its architecture contrasting with the natural landscape.

"In de Japanse cultuur gelooft men dat God overal is, in de bergen, de bomen, de stenen, de sympathieke robots en zelfs in Hello Kitty speelgoed."
